

Brock Belnap was elected Washington County Attorney in 2004 and is seeking re-election to his second full-term. He joined the County Attorney's Office in 1997 and was serving as Chief Civil Deputy at the time he became County Attorney. Brock received a bachelor's degree from the University of Utah and an associate's degree from Dixie College. Brock graduated from BYU law school in 1992, where he was a note and comment editor of the BYU Law Review and a member of the Order of the Coif. Before joining the County Attorney's Office in 1997, Brock worked at Salt Lake City law firm Fabian & Clendenin. Brock serves on several community boards and foundations. He and his wife have two children.